SSF Chamber Board Strengthens Governance with Fiduciary Training

The South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce is committed to strong leadership and sound governance to better serve our business community. To reinforce this commitment, the Chamber engaged Kimberly Cluff, a distinguished attorney with extensive experience in nonprofit governance and economic development, to train our Board on their fiduciary duties and responsibilities.

A special thank you to Chamber Board Member Suzanne Lee and Genentech for providing world-class meeting space for this critical training session. With a career spanning over two decades, Kimberly Cluff guided the Board through an in-depth review of key governance documents, policy updates, and best practices to ensure transparency, accountability, and effectiveness in Chamber operations.

Following the training, Board members gathered for a networking social at The Camber, a fantastic addition to The Hangar in South San Francisco, where they had the opportunity to reflect and discuss the next steps in implementing these enhanced governance practices.

By investing in strong leadership and responsible governance, the Chamber is building a solid foundation for long-term success, ensuring we continue to advocate for and support our members and the broader business community. This training marks another step in elevating the Chamber's role as a trusted partner for businesses in South San Francisco and beyond.

A Message from the Desk of Mary Prem

CEO of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce

Dear Chamber Members,

As we step into February, a month celebrating love and history, I want to take a moment to highlight some key updates and opportunities for our business community.

First, an important reminder about business license renewals. Due to the passage of Measure W, the deadline for 2025 business license renewals has been extended to February 28, 2025. If you own rental properties, please note that new regulations now require all rental units to be licensed, with a $50 per-unit tax. If you have questions about how this impacts you, please refer to the city's guidelines or reach out for support.

February is also a time to showcase and support our local businesses. We encourage you to send us your specials and promotions, whether it's Valentine's Day offers, Black History Month tributes, or simply a great deal you want to share with the community. We'll help spread the word through our Chamber channels!

Additionally, we understand that business owners need to be informed and prepared in today's regulatory landscape. The Chamber does not take a political stance on immigration policies, but we are committed to providing businesses with the tools and resources they need to operate smoothly. To support our members, we have distributed a checklist with best practices on how to handle an immigration enforcement visit in a way that protects both your business and your employees. If you haven't received it or need further guidance, please contact us.

As always, we appreciate your continued partnership and engagement. Let's make this a strong and successful month together!

With appreciation,
Mary Prem

Business License Renewal Deadline Extended & Important Updates

Due to the passage of Measure W, the deadline for 2025 business license renewals has been extended to February 28, 2025. Renewal notices were sent out in early January, and penalties will not be applied until March 1, 2025.

Key Updates for 2025:

- ☑ Construction Contractors – A new 0.18% tax on permit valuation will apply to all permits submitted starting January 1, 2025. Contractors must also file annually with the City to maintain an active license.
- ☑ Residential Property Rentals – All rental property owners (not just multi-family units) must now have a valid business license, with a new fee of $50 per unit.
- ☑ Late Payment Penalties – The penalty for nonpayment has changed to 10% per month, capping at 100% of the original tax (previously capped at 25%).

Business Owners' Rights & Responsibilities During an Immigration Raid

As a business owner, it's important to understand your rights and responsibilities when dealing with an immigration raid or enforcement action. Use this checklist to prepare and respond appropriately.

Disclaimer: This document is for informational purposes only and does not constitute legal advice. Consult an attorney for specific legal guidance.

Before a Raid: Preparation

- ✔ Ensure I-9 Compliance – Maintain properly completed I-9 forms for all employees.
 - ✔ Train Staff – Educate managers and employees on their rights and protocols.
 - ✔ Designate a Response Team – Assign key staff to handle legal matters and interact with authorities.
 - ✔ Consult an Attorney – Have an immigration or employment attorney available.
 - ✔ Develop a Workplace Raid Plan – Establish written procedures for handling enforcement actions.
 - ✔ Know the Types of ICE Actions – Be aware of administrative audits, site visits, and enforcement raids.

During a Raid: Your Rights & Actions

- ✔ Ask for Proper Identification – ICE agents must present a judicial warrant to enter non-public areas.
 - ✔ Review the Warrant Carefully – Ensure it includes the correct business name, address, and search scope.
 - ✔ Do Not Provide Additional Information – Only provide what the warrant specifically requests.
 - ✔ Limit ICE's Access – ICE cannot enter employee-only areas without a judicial warrant.
 - ✔ Do Not Consent to a Search – If ICE lacks a valid warrant, politely state, "I do not consent to a search."
 - ✔ Notify Legal Counsel Immediately – Contact your attorney and ask ICE to wait until legal representation arrives.
 - ✔ Do Not Obstruct the Investigation – Comply with legal requests but do not voluntarily provide extra information.
 - ✔ Protect Employee Rights – Employees have the right to remain silent and are not required to answer immigration status questions.

After a Raid: Next Steps

- ✔ Document Everything – Record details including agents' names, badge numbers, and any documents taken.
- ✔ Contact Your Attorney – Seek legal advice, especially if employees are detained.
- ✔ Provide Support for Employees – Share resources for legal aid and worker protection.
- ✔ Communicate with Staff & Customers – Maintain transparency while ensuring compliance with the law.
- ✔ Review & Strengthen Workplace Policies – Improve legal protections for future incidents.

Luis Chem Dry (October 1996)

Luis Alvarenga, owner of Luis' Chem-Dry. Luis' Chem-Dry is your trusted partner for exceptional cleaning services. We specialize in revitalizing carpets, including area rugs, upholstery (fabric and leather), and hard surfaces such as tile, natural stone, hardwood floors, LVT floors, and linoleum floors. We can also clean, seal and polish granite kitchen counters. I was born and raised in El Salvador and moved to the United States in 1983. I attended Elk Grove High School and graduated in 1985. In 1986 I moved to the San Francisco Bay Area and started working as a carpet technician at a Chem-Dry franchise in Belmont and attended San Mateo College during the evenings. In 1995 I decided to buy my own Chem-Dry franchise and moved to South San Francisco. As an immigrant to the United States, I am proud to say I have been living the American Dream.

I have owned and operated my own business for 30 years with a total of 39 years of experience in the carpet and upholstery cleaning industry. I was able to become a homeowner in 2001, and was fortunate enough to afford a private education for my son. He attended All Souls Catholic School, Junipero Serra High School and Saint Mary's College of California. I have been involved in helping the community of South San Francisco through different organizations such as the Young Men's Institute (The YMI) and Knight of Columbus at All Souls Catholic Church as well as the South San Francisco Host Lions Club. Mark A. Barradas, D.D.S. (October 2002)

Mark A. Barradas grew up in Daly City, just north of San Francisco. He graduated from Westmoor High School in 1978 and went on to study at the University of San Francisco, where he graduated in 1982 with a Bachelor's Degree of Science in Biology. He went onto receive his Doctor of Dental Surgery at Marquette University, 1986. Not long after, Dr. Barradas opened his practice in South San Francisco and had been practicing dentistry for over 39 years.

Mark truly enjoys serving the people of San Mateo County. In fact, he married one of them. Dr. Barradas has been married to his wife, Hilda for 43 years. They have two sons and two daughters-in-law and two grandchildren. Mark and his wife are very involved in their community as well. They are active members of St. Robert Church in San Bruno. Dr Barradas is also involved with South San Francisco Rotary Club, serving as president (2009-2020).

He is a member of CERT, which stand for Community Emergency Response Team and PAL, which stands for Police Activities League. He is also a member of the South San Francisco Chamber. He enjoys spending time with grandchildren family and friends, camping, playing guitar and traveling to Hawaii.

Chamber Attends Town Hall on Proposed In-N-Out Burger

In-N-Out Burger staff and consultants hosted a community town hall at the Library Parks and Recreation facility to discuss plans for a new location at 932 & 972 El Camino Real, the former Burger King site. The meeting brought together the Chamber of Commerce, city staff from Planning and Economic Development, local business owners, stakeholders, and residents for an engaging discussion.

The proposed project includes transforming the blighted lot into a modern restaurant with climate-friendly landscaping, a six-foot noise barrier wall, a drive-through lane, and a 40-foot landscaped buffer zone to minimize impact on neighboring residents. The development is expected to create 45 jobs and generate significant tax revenue for the city.

Attendees raised questions about traffic management, noise mitigation, and extended operating hours. In-N-Out representatives addressed these concerns with details about their operational strategies, including efficient drive-through queue management, noise-reducing infrastructure, and after-hours deliveries.

The Chamber appreciates the opportunity to be part of this important discussion and encourages continued community involvement as this project progresses.

What is the construction timeline?
Construction for the restaurant will be done in a single phase and take approximately 8 months, with a typical progression of construction activities. These activities, some of which would run concurrently, include site preparation and limited grading of about 4 to 6 weeks, building construction of about 5 months, paving and striping of about 3 weeks, and landscaping of about 2 weeks.

When will this location be open?
This location is expected to open in 2026 if approved.

SSF Chamber Works to Bring Emerging Biotech Companies to South San Francisco

The J.P. Morgan Healthcare Conference brought together top biotech, pharma, and med-tech leaders, creating a key opportunity to showcase South San Francisco as the Biotech Capital of the World. Thanks to an invitation from Pamela Gardner, CEO of BVS, the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce engaged with emerging life science companies, actively encouraging them to make South City their home.

At the Women of Influence in Life Sciences, we connected with groundbreaking startups and industry leaders looking for the right environment to grow. Pink Day was another highlight, reinforcing the industry's commitment to innovation in cancer research and healthcare.

Attracting these companies to South San Francisco fuels our local economy, creates jobs, and benefits our legacy businesses—from restaurants and retail to professional services. By expanding our reach beyond our zip code, the Chamber is working to bring the next wave of biotech innovation to our city.

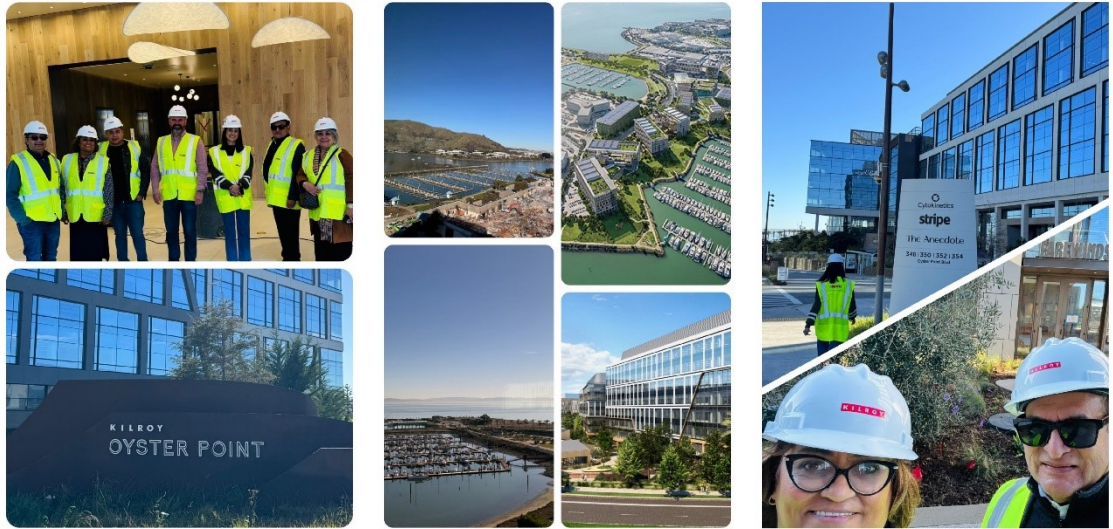

Exclusive Tour of Kilroy Oyster Point Phase 2

The South San Francisco Chamber Board kicked off the year with a productive January meeting at The Anecdote Restaurant, hosted by Natalia Morales from Kilroy Realty. Following the meeting, attendees had the opportunity to tour the impressive Kilroy Oyster Point Phase 2, gaining insight into the exciting developments transforming South San Francisco's biotech hub.

Phase 2 of Kilroy Oyster Point will introduce state-of-the-art life science facilities, modern office spaces, and vibrant public amenities. This expansion includes a new restaurant and rooftop lounge, a scenic Bay Trail, and a community amphitheater, all designed to enhance the area's accessibility and appeal.

Additionally, Kilroy Oyster Point will feature a private marina, which will eventually offer Water Uber taxi services, providing a unique and convenient transportation option for the area.

A huge thank you to Kilroy Realty for hosting us and sharing this exciting vision. We look forward to seeing this transformative project unfold and bring new opportunities for both businesses and the local community!

Cafecito with Mayor Eddie

On January 18, 2025, the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce attended the inaugural "Cafecito with Mayor Eddie" at Antigua Coffee Shop on Grand Avenue. This event featured discussions with Mayor Eddie Flores, City Manager Sharon Ranals, and local stakeholders, including Chamber board member and local business owner Dani Fandino of Flowers and Events by Dani. Community members had the opportunity to ask questions and share their perspectives, fostering a stronger community.

Skyline College Presidents Council Breakfast

The Chamber had the delicious privilege of participating in a taste-testing session for the upcoming Skyline College President's Council Breakfast, scheduled for March 21st. Save the date and get ready to savor scrumptious breakfast delights while networking with local leaders, all in support of the President's Innovation Fund.

This annual breakfast not only offers a fantastic meal but also highlights the incredible work being done to foster innovation and excellence at Skyline College. As co-chair of this worthwhile cause, I am honored to be part of such meaningful efforts that benefit our community.

Business Leaders Take a Stand Against Domestic Violence & Human Trafficking

On January 30th, business and community leaders gathered at the South San Francisco Conference Center for "Business Leaders Against Domestic Violence & Human Trafficking: Going from Bystander to Upstander." Organized by Jim McGuire of the South San Francisco Conference Center, in partnership with South San Francisco Police Sergeant Sean Curmi, the event aimed to educate and empower businesses to recognize, respond to, and help prevent these critical issues.

The City of South San Francisco played a key role in supporting this initiative, with Mayor Eddie Flores delivering a warm welcome to attendees. San Mateo County Supervisor Noelia Corzo gave the keynote address, emphasizing the importance of local leadership in fostering safer communities.

Attendees also heard from expert speakers representing CORA (Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse), the San Mateo County District Attorney's Office, victim advocates, and law enforcement professionals, who shared insights on prevention, intervention, and available support resources.

This powerful event reinforced the vital role that businesses and individuals can play in creating a safer, more informed community. Thank you to all who participated in this essential conversation!

February is American Heart Month, a time to raise awareness about heart disease and how to prevent it

Almost 80% of heart attacks are preventable – the following tips will help keep your heart healthy.

While heart attacks are common and incredibly alarming, many are preventable. If you practice healthy habits, you are much more likely to keep your heart healthy and avoid the number one worldwide cause of death for adults. Here are four areas that are the most important to maintaining heart health.

Don't smoke. People who smoke are 2-4 times more likely to experience heart disease than people who don't smoke. Smoking can damage the lining of your arteries, which can ultimately result in chest pain, arrhythmias, heart attacks and heart failure.

Maintain a healthy and balanced diet. There are many healthy choices available, especially if you make the time to plan your meals in advance. Ensure that you're eating plenty of fruit, vegetables, whole grains, low-fat dairy, skinless poultry and fish, nuts and beans. Moderation is key when it comes to saturated fats, sodium and sugar.

Exercise regularly. Try to get 150 minutes of moderate physical activity (i.e. brisk walking) each week (which is a little over 21 minutes a day). If you're able, rotate in some vigorous activity such as swimming, biking or hiking uphill.

Maintain a healthy weight. If you eat a healthy diet, exercise regularly, and avoid smoking, you're more likely to maintain a healthy weight which contributes to your overall health and wellness.

Wellness coaching is available at no charge for Kaiser Permanente members to manage their weight, quit tobacco, reduce stress, get more active, or make healthier food choices.

Some additional tips for preventing heart disease are:

- Maintain a healthy blood pressure and blood sugar, cholesterol and triglyceride levels
- Limit alcohol intake (one drink a day or less)
- Manage stress with helpful tools like meditation, yoga, massage, or breathing exercises
- Seek help for concerns with depression or mental health

Making healthy choices, managing your risk factors, and taking preventive measures will help keep your heart healthy,

Edward Kao, MD

Physician-in-Chief

Kaiser Permanente South San Francisco Medical Center
